Virtual symposium on Menstrual Health and Hygiene (MHH) in West and Central Africa

	Mov 25	May 26	May 27
	May 25	Iviay 20	IVIAY 21
9:00 - 10:30	Opening Ceremony  Plenary session: Setting the scene: The cross-cutting, multi-sectoral nature of menstrual health and hygiene.	Plenary session: Why is menstruation an issue for us young feminists?  Placing youth and adolescents at the heart of Menstrual Health and Hygiene programmes	Thematic Session 4: Research, monitoring and evaluation  Parallel Discussions: Room 1: Setting the research agenda for menstrual health and hygiene in the region Room 2: Monitoring and evaluating menstrual health and hygiene
10:30 - 11:00	BREAK: virtual tour of the platform  Take the opportunity to visit the exhibition booths, the resource center or to network	BREAK: virtual tour on the platform  Take the opportunity to visit the exhibition booths, the resource center or to network	BREAK: virtual tour on the platform  Take the opportunity to visit our different rooms and don't forget to fill your e-bag!
11:00 - 12:30	Thematic Session 1: Multi-sectoral collaboration  Parallel discussions:  Room 1: Strengthening the integration of menstrual health and hygiene in sexual and reproductive health services  Room 2: Strengthening the integration of menstrual health and hygiene in the education sector  Room 3: Menstrual health and hygiene in public policies and national strategies	Room 1: Promoting changes in behavior and social norms related to menstruation	Plenary session: Moving forward: Scaling menstrual health and hygiene in West and Central Africa  Closing Ceremony
12:30 - 13:30	LUNCH BREAK	LUNCH BREAK
13:30 - 15:00	Thematic Session 2: Financing and partnerships  Room 1: Positioning menstrual health and hygiene in traditional development assistance and innovative financing mechanisms	Thematic Session 3: Programmatic approaches and interventions (continued)  Parallel discussions:  Room 1: Building knowledge and skills related to menstrual health and hygiene  Room 2: Improving access to appropriate sanitary products and protection	Let's Talk
15:00 - 16:00	Room 1: Menstrual health and hygiene in emergency settings Room 2: Connecting supply with demand: MHH investments and social enterprises	Special interest session  Room 1: Menstrual health and hygiene for girls and women with disabilities  Room 2: Quality standards for menstrual products	Period.

